At Delighthouse, we pride ourselves on discovering only the highest quality truly local products for our range of exclusive gift baskets, as such you can be assured of supporting your local South East Queensland producers when you purchase from us.

Delighthouse is a family owned and operated business that originated with the concept of a gift basket that was of top quality and showcased our local producers.

We work hard to find small boutique producers of truly delectably handcrafted temptations that you just can't buy off the shelf. Purchasing our gift baskets supports and promotes our local producers.

All our hampers are carefully hand packed into high quality reusable cane baskets. Every basket is individually packed, wrapped and lovingly presented with real ribbons and handmade bows. We pride ourselves on the fact that we do not use imported mass produced decorations or embellishments.

We specialize in finding just the right mix of products for your needs and are more than happy to make up custom gift baskets for any special requirements, including non alcohol options.

With years of experience in the gourmet food industry, we have the knowledge to recommend the right products to suit different palates and dietary requirements.

As Delighthouse complies with all government regulations regarding safe food handling certification, Liquor Licensing requirements, ABN registration and is a Registered Australian Business, you can buy with confidence.

Whether it be rewarding loyal customers or staff, once in a lifetime occasions or just something fantastic for family and friends, Delighthouse will have something special for you that will be sure to impress.

At Delighthouse, we believe there is no need to look across the border or overseas to find the very best in indulgent gourmet gifts. From Dakibomon Organic Coffee grown on the slopes of our very own Glasshouse Mountains, world famous Noosa produced Macadamia Bliss Nougat to the delectable Lief handmade confectionery from Eumundi, you will not find a better range of gourmet local delights, guaranteed to impress.

We can further personalize your basket by including a small gift or token of appreciation supplied by yourself or your company. eg, personal messages, hand written cards, even promotional materials.

Discounts apply for quantity or regular orders, please contact us for more information on your individual requirements.

Delivery costs vary depending on amount ordered and location, again, please contact us for more information.
