Searon Alternate Energies is committed to helping homeowners harness the power of sustainable resources – like the sun – to reduce their power bills and their carbon footprints.

Why go solar with Searon?

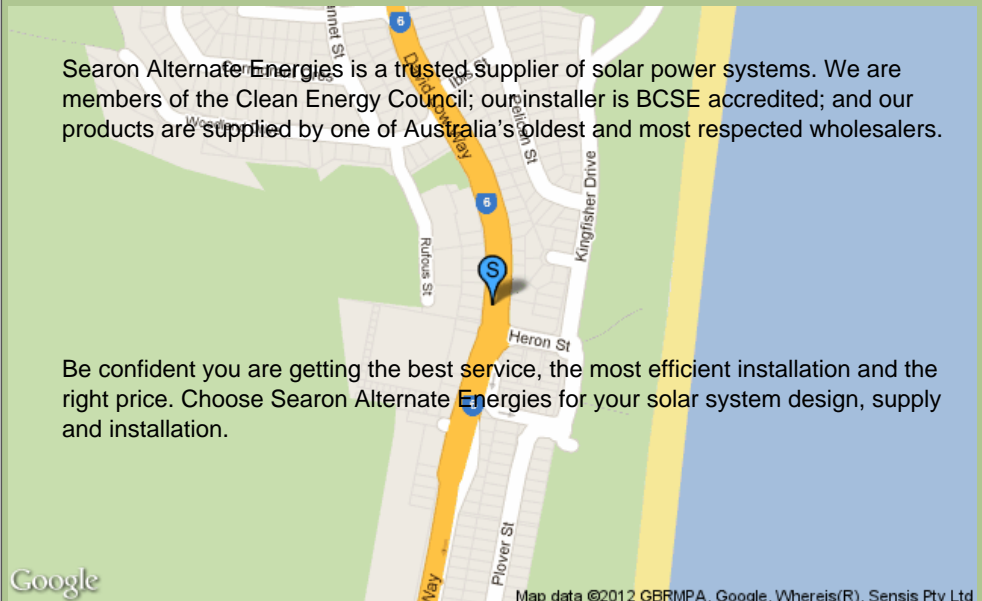

- reduce your ever increasing power bill
- add value to your home
- feel good about doing your part to save our world

We know that choosing to power your home with solar energy is a big decision. It's an investment you'll live with for many years to come. You need to feel comfortable with your decision; you need to understand what solar power means for you and your family; and it needs to be affordable for you.

That's why Searon Alternate Energies makes solar power:

- easy
- understandable
- hassle-free
- affordable

You can trust Searon Alternate Energies

Searon Alternate Energies is a trusted supplier of solar power systems. We are members of the Clean Energy Council; our installer is BCSE accredited; and our products are supplied by one of Australia's oldest and most respected wholesalers.

Be confident you are getting the best service, the most efficient installation and the right price. Choose Searon Alternate Energies for your solar system design, supply and installation.
